LISA WILKINSON

This week I got to meet one of my heroes, Lisa Wilkinson. From her days editing Dolly and Cleo to her current role as the co-host of the Today show on Channel 9, she always shows such integrity, treating her audience with respect and compassion. I was so pleased she was just as great in person – I was one of a group of Brisbane women in media who got the chance to hang out with her over high tea and some pampering at the fab Stephanie's Spa Retreat at the Sofitel Hotel in Brisbane City. When asked about her beauty routine, Lisa gave one of the best answers I've heard: she said she doesn't worry about it too much. She likes a facial and looks after her skin but doesn't let it take over her life, believing instead that if you enjoy your life it will show on your face. She must have a great life!

THE eyes have it this week with lots of great new products to have your peepers twinkling.

KIEHL'S

Kiehl's new Marvelous Mineral Mascara ($36) is the perfect blend of natural lash coverage and conditioning colour. The gentle formulation was designed for even the most sensitive of eyes – it is hypoallergenic, paraben-free and fragrance-free, and contains jojoba oil, aloe vera and mineral pigments, while the ultra-soft brush was designed to be tug-free and extra-caring for lashes. From David Jones QueensPlaza or call (02) 9931 8888.

BENEFIT

If you aren't already priming your eyes with a dedicated eye primer before applying eye make-up, this is something you should consider doing. It helps your shadow stay put (great for hot summer days or for ladies of a certain age who have trouble keeping shadow in place) and gives a great, even base to apply eye make-up. Benefit's Stay Don't Stray ($45) is a lightweight formula that contains hydrating vitamins to keep eyes looking smooth all day, and provides the perfect base to lock on your concealer and eye shadow. From Myer, City, or call (02) 8353 5000 for stockists.

ESTEE LAUDER

If you covet the cool, sexy, smoky look or the rock-star fabulousness of a smudgy well-lined eye, then the new Blacker than Black collection from Estee Lauder is just what you need. The collection contains a selection of intensely pigmented mascaras (from $48), a limited-edition Signature Eyeshadow Quad in Black Smoke ($70) and a double-wear Stay-In-Place Eye Pencil in Onyx ($38), all designed to help you create the perfect smoulder. Call 1800 061 326 or go to esteelauder.com.au for stockists.
